Consumer Information

Consumer Information

Postsecondary higher education institutions participating in Title IV are required by The Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA) to distribute or make available disclosures and reporting requirements of the institution to the students as well as the general public. The disclosures and reporting requirements and methods are contained below. Alternatively, upon request, you may contact a campus to request a paper copy of the information during normal business hours. For more information, contact the school. Contact information is provided on each campus site. Click here for a complete listing of the campus sites. A listing of the campuses, as well as contact information can be found at Centura College, Aviation Institute of Maintenance or Tidewater Tech Trades.

Notice of Non-Discrimination

The Institution does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, sex, age, or disability in any of its programs or activities. The Institution provides policies and procedures that are compliant with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Any individual who believes that she or he has been discriminated against has the right to seek relief and to be free from retaliation by members of the learning community.

The following individual has been designated by the Institution to handle all inquiries regarding its non-discrimination policies:

Corporate Office of Education – 877-604-2121 (toll free)
4455 South Blvd., Suite 250, Virginia Beach, VA 23452

OR an individual may contact the Federal Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights.

Aviation Institute of Maintenance Student Acknowledgement

Please be advised that individual employers, many externship sites, and specific certification administrators unaffiliated with the institution may have regulations or policies that could limit or prohibit acceptance into employment, externship opportunities, or certifications for persons who have a history of a criminal conviction for a felony, certain misdemeanor crimes, or any crime involving the elderly or persons under the age of 18.

The institution affirms that it is the responsibility of the student entering a program to ascertain if their individual history may prevent employment, externship or certification in their chosen field of study.

Mission Statement

The Aviation Institute of Maintenance helps adult students gain the skills and attitudes necessary for a meaningful entry-level career position. We strive to be responsive to the needs of our students, as well as businesses, industries, and government. We are committed to high academic standards in all curricular offerings, and we are dedicated to providing the services that support our students' efforts to succeed.
